National Executive Council Nomination Form

NEC is collectively responsible for

- ▶ the finances of the Association
- ▶ the membership database
- ▶ organising and overseeing BATOD's national meetings and conferences, supporting all four countries of the UK
- ▶ monitoring and updating the website and raising awareness of the Association's work through social media
- ▶ producing the Magazine
- ▶ oversight of the Journal
- ▶ updating publicity material, designing and distributing Association literature where appropriate
- ▶ maintaining the Association archives
- ▶ fundraising and grant applications
- ▶ considering and developing audiological issues in relation to education
- ▶ liaising with national organisations and government departments
- ▶ dealing with current educational matters relating to deaf children and young people including curriculum issues, early years education, Ofsted, GCSE and other national examinations and IT developments
- ▶ all aspects of training of Teachers of the Deaf including working with Teacher of the Deaf course providers and supporting the maintenance and development of the mandatory qualification
- ▶ pay and conditions of Teachers of the Deaf
- ▶ developing and maintaining a mentoring scheme for QToDs
- ▶ other relevant topics identified by members and NEC
- ▶ liaising and collaborating with Teachers of the Deaf in other countries

The NEC meets four times a year but all members undertake some work between meetings – for example preparing documents or contributing ideas and responses to consultations
