

BATOD Scotland, in conjunction with the SSC, will be delivering an online twilight session for professionals.

Auditory Neuropathy Spectrum Disorder from Birth

Keynote Presentation from Dr. Kai Uus MD, PhD

Dr Kai Uus works at the Manchester Centre for Audiology and Deafness, University of Manchester. She is a leading researcher in Auditory Neuropathy Spectrum Disorder (ANSD), sharing her specialist knowledge of this medical condition and how it affects hearing.

Date – Tuesday 9th March 2021

Time: 4pm – 6pm

Online platform: Zoom

Audience - Teachers of Deaf, Teachers of Multi-Sensory Impairment, Audiologists, Education Audiologists, Speech and Language Therapists, Education Support staff and Early Years Practitioners.

Price per person - £20

Please note: Captioning and BSL interpretation will be provided.

After the keynote presentation, there will be a live Q & A session with Dr. Kai Uus and panel members from Health and Education:

Dr Priya Somasegaram:
Consultant in Audiovestibular Medicine
Royal National Ear Nose Throat and
Eastman Dental Hospital

David Couch: QToD & Educational Audiologist

Outline of Live Conference:

4pm: Welcome and Introduction

4:10pm: Dr Kai Uus' presentation (The pre-recorded presentation can be watched on the day or in advance with an access token.)

4:40pm: Q & A with panel members

5:50pm: Close

To book, follow this link: <https://www.epay.ed.ac.uk/product-catalogue/college-of-humanities-and-social-science/moray-house-school-of-education/cpd/auditory-neuropathy-spectrum-disorder-ansd-from-birth>

Follow us at:

