Mainstream benefits and challenges: a tricky balance?	Sue Brownson Lead for the Deaf Provision at Laycock School
The importance of context information in working towards developing theory of mind	Katrien Timmerman Educational Psychologist, KIDS, Belgium

Workshops may change and will depend on demand, but will include:

- Identity and confidence for young people with cochlear implants
- Challenging the Local Authority (inc. Tribunals and Q and A)
- Dealing with DLA and PIP
- Early red flags for development of language
- Fun with listening and language in the early years
- Preparing your child for transitions in education
- Young adult CI users telling it like it is
- Hearing dogs - more than a four-legged friend
- C.I. and radio aid manufacturers' products

Note: We regret that due to insurance issues we are unable to provide crèche facilities

Only £17 per person! Demand will be high! So, book early to avoid disappointment.
